

More than just a market

MARKET NEWS 12th JULY 2016

Market matters

With Tim on holiday, Simon sold the fat cattle and a few more were about. Trade was brighter provided cattle were well fleshed, with as many buyers as ever. Live weight prices in the ring here stacking up more than favourable against other marketing options with all weight paid for and no arbitrary penalties for being too heavy.

It was nice to welcome Barrie to the rostrum in the calf ring, where he had a very nice trade. Good continental calves in short supply with many more needed. Please call Barrie on 07541 400 919 to let him know what you are bringing on a Tuesday so he can market calves to their best potential. Barrie will also be selling the reared and store cattle next week while Ben is away, an excellent stand in given his recent experience of selling these animals at Derby.

A much busier day in the sheep shed for Tom with more lambs on offer. The post 'Brexit' fall in sterling has been driving export trade, although it was pleasing to see a bit of weight rewarded, which would demonstrate some increase in demand from the home trade as well. A top price of £115 for a pen from K S Mayfield, Frisby was a fantastic return for July, and surely with lambs reaching this price, the breeding ewe trade should be sharper this Autumn.

Speaking of breeding sheep sales I am pleased to announce sponsorship of all our special breeding sheep sales has been secured with the first to be held on 16th August, being generously sponsored by CEVA Animal Health.

Those eager readers of the new look Farmers Guardian will also be aware that we have a new employee starting, who also pens a monthly blog in the paper. John Powell will join us next week as a fieldsman, following his graduation from Harper Adams, work on the family farm and with Dawn Meats. We look forward to his start and I am sure he will be an asset to the market.

The building work on the new cattle building is coming along nicely now, groundwork is underway to enable the builders to start piling. Whilst the work is ongoing we appreciate the continued co-operation of all of our customers as we go through the interim period, it will be worth the pain in the end!!

Finally, for those users of TripAdvisor, you will be delighted to know that the market has now been voted the number one shopping destination in town, with a certificate of excellence – testament to the dedication and enthusiasm of all our traders, customers and staff.
