

More than just a market

MARKET NEWS 13th OCTOBER 2015

Ben's Bumph

With Tim away in America, the sale of the finished cattle went to our multi-talented partner and auctioneer, Mr Simon Allam. He reported a brisk trade for all on show, with a 100% clear out. Tim will be back in the office on Friday, so call him to enter your cattle for next week.

Richard Spendlove in the baby calves reported a flying trade for continental bulls & heifers. Friesians also bucked the trend and sold above expectations.

The reared cattle section flowed well with many buyers pleased with their results, and promising more cattle for future weeks.

150 Stores met a strong trade with some excellent results. I managed to almost keep to the start times this week, and I am aiming to keep this up.

To help me achieve this, it would be superb if vendors could clean ear tags where possible and to have the blue entry forms accompanying the passports.

In the sheep section a busy shed again with all sections well represented. With fat trade as it is, the store price looks tremendous and many vendors finding this the better marketing outlet for lambs. Next week is the show and sale of ewe lambs, which will be sold through the ring, further entries invited for the catalogue – entries to make the catalogue close on Friday at 12 noon.

As ever, entries in to Tim, Tom or myself so we can advertise your stock.

I am also pleased to announce that planning permission was granted last Thursday for the new grant-funded cattle building at the market, to be delivered next year.
