

More than just a market

MARKET NEWS 14th JUNE 2016

Manager's Mutterings

With being a wet Monday, we had more stock forward and continue our growth on last year which is great news for all.

The fat cattle department sold 127 today with prices much better than other outlets and one farmer quoted as saying "I reckon my steer today is £100 dearer selling live". Also around the ring were new prospective buyers and sellers from the wider region, who will be most welcome when they start to trade. Top price today was for Rob Russell of Edenham of 229p/kg to achieve £1,165, while Shortwood Estates had a heavy steer achieve over £1,400. Ben found the store cattle a very fast trade, with a large audience of buyers.

Tom reports a larger entry of Spring lambs as we enter June, with lots of lambs coming ready at once. Cull ewes were also a larger entry and met a flying trade, especially given the Muslim fasting period. The first entry of store lambs was nice to see and there were plenty of buyers and trade was beyond expectations.

If you would like Tom or I to value your stock or give advice on how and when to market it, please give either of us a call at any time and we would be delighted to visit. We are also looking forward to welcoming new members of our team shortly. Our lairage is open on Monday to accommodate stock for Tuesday sales. Please call to arrange pens and also let us know if you need help or advice with transport as we often know of lorries in the area.

Referendum fever hit the market again today with the BBC's diplomatic correspondent visiting for a piece on the news later this week, following hot on the heels of ITV and Irish television last month, all showcasing Melton Mowbray Market to a much wider audience.

Finally, I would like to put some dates in your diary for special Friday Autumn store cattle sales – see the box to the right. These will be in addition to normal Tuesday sales, will be catalogued and have prizes for the best animals. Please contact us for further information and sponsorship details.

Next week on Wednesday 22nd June and Thursday 23rd June we shall have a stand at the Lincolnshire Show. Please accept our invitation to come and join us.

New Season Lambs	1247

I would like to start the report this week by congratulating (on behalf of all the staff at Melton) Miss Sarah Turner on her recent engagement to Mr James Winfrey.

More lambs about, as reported across the country. The increase in supply has depressed trade with the larger processors now getting enough lambs deadweight and withdrawing from live markets, the drop in trade which has resulted just shows how livestock markets promote trade, with deadweight alternatives seeking to depress it.

A big difference in price today between the best meated, best quality lambs and the leaner, lighter lambs which seemed to be out in force. Lambs must be full of meat, get the extra finish on to maximise your returns. Trade was less as expected, but 10 active buyers on 12 accounts creating competition on a difficult trade.

A top price per kilo of 201p for W R Gill, Burton Lazars and per head of £90 for A K Summerland, Melton Mowbray.

Cull Ewes	399		AUCTIONEER Tom Greenow 07775 758586
------------------	------------	--	---

Reports of a steady ewe trade elsewhere, not in evidence today. An absolute flyer with every pen fought hard for. We had 14 buyers for ewes today, all competing with some excellent returns. A top price per head of £119 for N J Cheney, Fotheringay.

Store Lambs	148		Overall Average £ 41.85
--------------------	------------	--	--------------------------------

PLEASE NOTE: store lambs will be sold at 11.30 am until further notice.

The first entry of store lambs met great interest with more buyers than pens of lambs. A top price of £53.50 from K Glynn, Norfolk with an overall average of £41.85 which included 19 cade lambs at £22. With plenty of grass about demand for store lambs looks good early on.
