

More than just a market

MARKET NEWS 18th AUGUST 2015

Manager's Mutterings

Today was Ben Shoulers last market selling as a single man. He marries Lucie Stinson on Friday and I, along with all the market staff wish them many happy years together for the future.

The sheep shed was busy today with just shy of 4000 penned and saw its first August Show and Sale of Breeding Sheep, sponsored by Ceva Animal Health, and sold through the ring. Our thanks to Mr Steve Booth, Ab Kettleby for judging. The sale saw 678 breeding ewes go through with a top price of £166 for a pen of 8 Texel Theaves from C.D. Mann, Johnsons Drove.

A full list of sheep sales is available on our website. Entries for the NSA Ram Sale have closed, with the sale on Friday 18th September with 250 quality rams forward.

All cattle departments reported good prices driving more entries for next week. With Ben on his honeymoon, I'll be selling the strong stores and Simon Allam the Reared Calves.

BREEDING SHEEP FROM LOWESBY FARMS

Annual consignment of breeding ewes.

Tuesday 8th September – 300 Quality North England Mules & 100 Quality Scotch Mules (out of St Boswells, Scotland)

Also on this day:

From N F Redfern, Hampton in Arden
80 North Country Mule 2yo, On Heptavac

Peter Hibbins

Everyone who knew Peter will be saddened to hear of his sudden passing whilst loading one of his lorries recently. Peter took over the running of the family livestock haulage business based at Cotes, many years ago. He gained a reputation second to none in the efficient transport of farm livestock, particularly pigs. A very popular character always seeming cheerful and sharing a joke whatever the circumstances. He was good to know and will be greatly missed. Our thoughts go out to Karen and all the family at this difficult time.

The church service will take place Friday 28th August, 3:15pm at Prestwold Church with many meeting at The Anchor, Walton-on-the-Wolds from MIDDAY.

New Season	1976	SALE TIME 9:45am	AUCTIONEER Tom Greenow 07775 758586
-------------------	-------------	-----------------------------	---

Still the glut goes on – no end of lambs everywhere across the country and no exception here today. Trade probably better than it felt, but this is no real consolation. We are marketing your lambs to the best of trade at present which is more than can be said of other marketing options. Please remember when drawing lambs – meat is more important than weight. Despite the trade, 18 buyers on 24 accounts today at Melton.

Top price per kg of 157p for T.W. Taylor, Bourne and per head of £77 for B. Worthing, Daventry.
