

More than just a market

MARKET NEWS 25th AUGUST 2015

Manager's Mutterings

As Ben Shouler was away on his honeymoon somewhere in Cumbria I sold the strong stores. A few more numbers forward which was greeted with a packed ringside. Prices were good especially the traditional breeds. Similar numbers expected next week.

Likewise Simon Allam stood in for Ben in the reared calves and had a busy trade with over 100 animals and top price of £900.

The fat cattle today were a tremendous trade with a high average and buyers fighting over all types of cattle. Paul Russell of Upwell had four very nice butchers cattle forward and averaged over 230p/Kg.

Opening again after a three year lay-off, the Horse Sale coincides with a Machinery, Tack and Poultry sales on the 5th September.

Entries are now closed for the Rare Breeds Show and Sale. Catalogues are now available on line www.meltonmowbraymarket.co.uk – Rare Breeds or for a hard copy contact the office.

New Season	1356	SALE TIME 9:45am	AUCTIONEER Tom Greenow 07775 758586
-------------------	-------------	-----------------------------	---

A reduced entry which reflects the number nationally. All buyers a little keener and trade just a penny or two dearer. On a positive note, a bit more premium for better sorts which would help a bit. 11 buyers this week on 17 accounts this week. Top price per kilo of 174p for K Summerland, Melton Mowbray and per head of £76 for T W Herrick, Cotgrave.
