

More than just a market

MARKET NEWS 28th JUNE 2016

Manager's Mutterings

The first market since the Referendum vote and good to see so many farmers with a smile on their faces unless they were pleased with England's exit from Europe last night.

There were many new faces about the market today mainly from the Derby area looking to sell their livestock here, the ones I spoke to around the fat ring were all suitably impressed. Since the closure of Derby market we have secured the signature of Barrie Williamson to sell the calves who is widely respected amongst the industry and has a big following.

Simon Allam will move upstairs and concentrate on his Chairman roles and be ever present around the rings talking to customers.

Back to today's auctions, firstly the fat cattle department trade, the new system working very well and efficiently. Farmers enjoying full price and weight with the top grossing beast today was £1561 for K S Mayfield & Co., Limousin steer.

Ben reports some excellent prices in both the reared and store sections with some superb results in the reared especially. He is hoping to get similar numbers for next week.

Tom reports a marvellous trade in the Spring lamb auction today.

Tom had the pleasure of judging at Blaston Show at the weekend. A fantastic entry of sheep was presented with his eventual commercial sheep champion being awarded to J Fyfe for their pen of 3 Texel theaves. Champion pen of 3 fat lambs went to C & G Davies. Congratulations to all who showed and in particular to those going home with rosettes.

Please see the latest update on the building works overleaf and note that the cattle and sheep will be coming in different entrances from next week, with the road between the two closed to traffic. Many thanks for your continued co-operation as we build for the future.

Les latterly worked in the rearing calves until 2014, but he had been coming to the market as a client for many decades before. He regularly told me stories when I was the auctioneer for the rearing calves about Melton Market and its past. We shall inform you of any funeral arrangements once we know more
