MARKET NEWS 6th OCTOBER 2015

Manager's Mutterings

A very pleasing day today with a full cattle and sheep shed, nearly 700 head of cattle and 4,000 head of sheep.

Today was the first Autumn catalogued Store Cattle Sale of the year with a good entry of over 400 cattle. There was a good atmosphere around the cattle rings which inspired good prices throughout. The farmers I spoke to during and after the sale were very satisfied and asked when the next Store Sale would be. I am pleased to say this will be on Tuesday 3rd November.

John Brooks, Stanton on the Wolds

It is with great regret that we are reporting the death of John Brooks, aged 90 last Sunday. A Melton Cattle Market stalwart since his childhood until more recent ill health prevented him from attending. He will be sorely missed. If ever there was a 'character' with an expert interest and opinion, he was that person. You could rely on sensible input to any transport issues and he regularly attended meetings with the Council representing the livestock haulage contractors. Our condolences to Joyce, Paul and all the family. Details of funeral arrangements should be available next week.

Terry Kemp

Terry was a regular in Melton Market for all his life, mostly spent at Home Farm, Colston Bassett. Always approachable and polite, he was good company to many friends. Sadly he died last Monday from cancer after a brave fight.

Very pleasing day in the stores, busy with prices high and a well supported Autumn Sale from many local farmers. A good run of entries from local farmers and a good entry from Norfolk justified this day. Local farmer Donald Haywood topped the market with some home grown Charolais steers at £1205.
